From the Desk of Editor-in-Chief

Greetings to all. The bygone year 2014 has been marked by many events, activities in the College campus. This issue of ours gives you the glimpse of records of all such events of the year, 2014.

I am delighted to inform you that all of our faculty members have been very much active academically, socially and have attended many National/International Seminars/Conferences, published books, organized Lectures and Awareness Camp, received Ph.D Degrees from G.U., actively associated with cancer care in North-East, et-al. We are proud to announce that our College family is generously donating to the orphanage home "Sishu Kalyan Sadan, Assam Sewa Samiti" Narengi, Guwahati and has opened a "Poor Student fund" in the College to help the needy students and will very soon adopt a village in the nearby area. We always encourage the faculty members to participate in various seminars and conferences and towards getting exposure to innovative experience, new ideas, insights to build confidence and move ahead in their respective arena and enrich our institution with their expertise. Besides, our valued students too have achieved success both in academic field and extracurricular activities and brought name, fame and glory to the college. We always aspire to make our college a prestigious one in the state with three pillars of strength in our mind, i.e. teaching, research and extension. The College is moving ahead in a proper direction to achieve its goals with our college family, who works endlessly to bring about a change that presides glory and pride. Finally, I would like to thank those who have been loyal, supportive, faithful and for lended a helping hand in all weathers. Here, I also extend my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. H. P. Saikia, Dr. A. R. Gogoi and Kumar Sanjay Krishna for guiding and supporting us.

Long live Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College.

Thank you.
