An Annual College News Bulletin
7th Issue 2017

From the Desk of Editor-in-chief

Greetings to all ! A college is marked for its academic works, its social extension programmes, and its teachers' and students' activities and achievements. And with this belief in mind, we, the Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College family, have been putting hard and sincere works in all the way possible to make this institution an academic hub where all round development of an individual can take place by indulging in various works and activities. In the year 2017 the college had witnessed a host of activities both on the individual and the institutional level like the Inter College Zonal Youth Festival, 2017 of Gauhati University, Run for National Integrity, Celebration of International Women's Day, Departmental Talks, Lectures, Seminars, publishing books etc. This 7th issue of The Reflexion mirrors all these events and activities.

Here, I would like to give my heartfelt congratulations to all the members of the college for the success and achievements they have made in their respective fields and spheres. Again I want to thank our alumni for their constant support in propelling the college forward in the path of excellence and success. I do hope the cooperation of all will pave the way for the college to grow as one of the esteemed educational institutions of the state in the coming years.

Thank you!

Vive la Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College!

Editor's Desk...

The Reflexion, an annual college news bulletin, showcases the activities and achievements of our college as well as our teachers and students. Ours is a young college growing all the way possible to emerge as one of the leading academic hubs in the state in coming years. The year 2017 was replete with many activities and events in the college. Besides, our teachers, students and alumni have been successful in carving the niche in their respective fields and spheres. All these have propelled the college to a new height in its journey towards excellence. This seventh issue of The Reflexion is a microcosm of all these activities which will go a long way in moulding the college's over all academic pursuit.

Here, I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Sikhamoni Konwar, the Principal, for her constant support and guidance and all the faculties and concerned for their cooperation which go into the total making of this issue of The Reflexion.

Thank you

Long live Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College!
