From the Desk of Editor-in-Chief

Namaskar! As we reflect on another eventful period, I am delighted to ruminate on the achievements that continue to define our journey together. Like the past years, this year also our students have demonstrated remarkable resilience, creativity, and commitment in both academics and extracurricular activities, making us all incredibly proud. Our alumni Deepshikha Baishya and Bijoya Devi have been able to qualify in APSC examination, college's NSS volunteers Himakshi Chaudhary attended the NSS East-Zone Pre-Republic Day Parade 2023, and Irshad Ahmed attended the National Integration Camp 2023. They all brought laurels to the college in this year. These milestones not only showcase the hard work of our students but also the dedication of our college family and the unwavering support of College Governing Body. Here, on behalf of the college family, I take the opportunity to extend my heartfelt gratefulness to Cinnamara College Women Cell, Cinnamara, Jorhat for awarding me with Kuntewari Dutta Memorial State Award 2023 and enriching the college's spirit and acknowledging our collective contribution to the society at large. Besides, I would also like to congratulate Dr. Biju Rajkhowa, Asst. Professor of Assamese for attaining Ph.D. from Gauhati University and adding another feather in the college's hat.

As we look ahead to the next academic year, we aim to build upon this foundation of success, fostering a learning environment that nurtures innovation, inclusivity, and leadership. Let us continue to strive for excellence and uphold the values that make Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College a beacon of knowledge and progress.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to the college family and all the distinguished members of the civil society for their unwavering support and dedication to our shared vision. Together, we will continue to move farther ahead with success and glory.

Long live Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College! Thank you all.
